

Kings of Lyon are widely known as the best; the most accurate and vibrant tribute to the Kings of Leon...

"Spot on - Five Stars" - Q Magazine

"The Kings of Lyon are the number 1 tribute to the Kings" - Stage Magazine

"Four extremely talented musicians playing the best from 'Youth and Young Manhood' to 'Only By The Night' as only the Kings themselves could" - Belfast Empire

Kings of Lyon exploded onto the scene at the beginning of 2009 and have been propelled to the top of the tribute ladder with panache and a youthful vibrancy that secured them an O2 Academy headline tour that lead straight into their first European tour. A string of festival dates followed throughout Europe, the Middle East and the UK with sell-out shows in the country's foremost music venues from Ireland to the Channel Islands along with high accolade in Q Magazine and a massive UK following.

Kings of Lyon play the perfect KOL show. They have an astounding live set incorporating all of the fans' favourites from 'Youth and young Manhood' to KOL's latest chart success, 'Walls'. The band have risen to become one of the most sought after tributes of recent years; stunningly faithful in every aspect from an inseparable appearance to their gut wrenching, soaring stadium sound.

The four musicians who make up Kings of Lyon are no stranger to success in the music industry, having played together for over eighteen years in various successful projects. Kings Of Lyon has performed throughout the world for various events and functions; weddings, universities, private parties, ticket only public venues, open air festivals and corporate functions.

The members of the band received their first television exposure when they were crowned 'Global Icon winners 2008'. Global Icon was an online competition sponsored by 'Sky Television' which featured thousands of bands from Europe and gave exposure to the band's original writing project, The Riffs. The competition, which was filmed and recorded in Manchester, lead to a university tour and the chance to work with the industry's top producers; all adding to the band's wealth of experience. Kings Of Lyon have since been privileged to be featured on several UK and Dutch television shows.

What makes Kings of Lyon so special is that they have a wealth of experience though still young; they have a great sound, which they have worked on for years, and are fortunate to have the look as well with an exciting live set encompassing all the hits and fans' favourites from Kings of Leon's seven studio albums.

Kings of Lyon are the most astounding, vibrant tribute to Kings of Leon, playing an inspired and often surprising collection of Kings of Leon tracks with an energy and quality which, has already gained them a massive, enviable reputation.

The band play an untouchable live set offering three choices for any event:

1. The early album, core fans' special – A scorching, toe-tapping rock and roll thumper of a set featuring all of the singles and fan favourites from 'Tales of Youth and Young Manhood' and 'Aha Shake Heartbreak' that first launched them into the hearts of millions of UK music lovers.
2. The big stadium album special – A set made entirely of the soaring stadium fillers of the third and fourth albums, 'Because of the Times' and 'Only by the Night'.
3. The Kings Of Leon story so far – A carefully chosen set featuring songs from all seven studio albums.
